FALL OF LOVCEN ANOTHER SEVERE BLOW TO ALLIES

Capture of Montenegrin Mountain Stronghold, 6 1/2 Miles West of Capital, Removes Menace to Austrian Naval Base.

Balance of Power in Adriatic
Is Reversed and King Nicholas' Troops May Be Isolated.

French Had Mounted Guns
on Mountain, Which Is Taken After Three Days' Battle in Snow.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Jan. 12.—Another great achievement for the central Powers is recorded today in the capture by the Austrians of the Montenegrin stronghold of Lovcen, a mountain 5700 feet high,
which is only about six and one-half miles west of Cetinje, the Montenegrin capital. Lovcen stood as a menace to the Austrian naval base of Cattaro in Southern Dalmatia.

The loss of Lovcen will cause great disappointment to Italy, because it will completely reverse the balance of power in the Adriatic.

Austrian Forestall Danger.
The loss of Lovcen, from the point of view of the allies, is serious owing to the fact that its summit dominates Cattaro Bay, an Austrian naval base. Before Italy entered the war the French had established a number of guns on the mountain, and had prepared emplacements for heavy guns which could have swept the bay. Austria, by capturing it, forestalls this danger, and in a commanding position with regard to Cetinje, a little over six miles distant, although sheltered by intervening mountains.

The Austrian advance, considering the distance to be covered, was much slower than that made in the Teuton conquest of Serbia, but, in consideration of the formidable character of the mountainous character of the country presents, it is conceded that the invaders are making steady progress.

The question is being anxiously raised as to why the entente allies did not ago send aid to the Montenegrins, and in particular why Italy, which is more acutely affected by this Austrian invasion, had not taken preventive measures. The Austrians are now only 10 miles from the capital of Montenegro, calculating the distance over the existing roads and a successful blow at the heart of the country may have the effect, it is said by military critics, of isolating the troops who are defending the northeastern frontier.

Taken in Three-Day Battle.
The Vienna official report last night gave these details of the fighting in Montenegro:

"Lovcen has been taken. In three days of fighting our brave infantry, in splendid co-operation with the army and our navy, overpowered the bitter resistance of the enemy and the enormous difficulties of the wintry Karat Mountains, which, arising from the sea as a wall of more than 100 yards, for years have been organized as a defense.

"Twenty-six guns were captured. The guns, partly intact, are being used against the enemy.
"In Northeast Montenegro the enemy
yesterday again retreating close to Bertano, was beaten. The village and the dominating heights southwest of Bertano
are in our possession. Our quick action succeeded in preserving the burning Ltm River bridge from total destruction.
"Near Inek 13 Serbian guns and much ammunition have been dug up."

For the British public the latest statements regarding the situation in Mesopotamia will not entirely relieve the anxiety. The British Gen. Aymer's column, which is advancing to the relief of Kut-el-Amara, has met and repulsed a strong Turkish force,
but its present position by no means is satisfactory. It finds in front of it a Turkish army greatly superior in numbers. Therefore it is evident that a successful juncture of the two British armies, although they are only 20 miles apart, may prove a difficult task.

An official communication received from Constantinople today says that on the night of Jan. 6 the British, who had been surrounded in Kut-el-Amara, attempted at many points to make sorties after a vigorous bombardment, but were repulsed.

There have been no fresh developments on the Russian front, where the cold weather again has set in. The thermometer at some points touching 30 degrees below zero. Although for the moment the Russians have ceased their attack upon the Austro-German lines,
from the Pripiat River to the Bessarabian frontier, information from German sources is that they have not given up the venture, but merely are reorganizing their forces for another formidable assault. The Russians are reported as fortifying the positions recently won by them and in this way their front gradually has been extended until they occupy about 34 miles of the east bank of the middle reaches of

RAILROAD AIDS PREPAREDNESS

Women Members of Employee Families Asked to Join Organization.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—The wives, mothers, daughters and sisters of over 150,000 employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad on all lines passing through this State will be invited by the company to enroll in the Pennsylvania
Woman's Division for National Preparedness. The organization was founded three weeks ago by Mrs. George W.
Childs-Town, to train women in the work of relief in case of war or a general calamity, such as flood, earthquake or fire.

A meeting of the wives of nearly every official of the company was held yesterday at the home of Miss George Dail-Dixon, wife of the second vice president.
Dixon and William Wallace Atterbury,
first vice president, announced today that the company would issue an official call to the employees.

NEW U. S. WIRELESS ORDER

Ships of Belligerents Must Lower Aerials in American Ports.
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Hereafter,
all merchant vessels of the belligerent nations must lower their aerials
to the deck on entering United States ports, disconnect them and have the receiving and transmitting apparatus sealed by a Government official. The order, which will be lowered and the seals intact while the vessels are in port.

Instructions to this effect were received yesterday from Secretary of the Navy Daniels. The order will be effective immediately more than 100 ships here, including the Cunard liner Or-duna, the Anchor liner Camerania,
and the French liner Lafayette.

VISITOR HAD 32 PINTS OF WHISKY

He Admitted the Liquor Was on Way to "Dry" Territory.

Jesse Hoyt of Hillsboro, Mo., a railroad brakeman, was carrying 32 pint bottles of whisky in his pockets when a policeman met him near Union Station last night.
"Where's your dramshop license?"
inquired the policeman. "That stuff must be going into dry territory."
"It is," replied Hoyt. "I was just going to take a drink when you stopped me."
The policeman decided to lock Hoyt
up pending investigation.

10 WHALES WASHED ASHORE

Gale Thought to Have Beached Them
at Cape Hatteras.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 11.—Ten whales
weighing from 100 to 300 pounds each,
were washed ashore at Cape Hatteras
Monday night.
Marine men believe that the whales were a part of a school, and that they either were struck by ships and killed or were washed ashore by the northeast gale that swept the Atlantic Coast recently. The whales are of no value except for fertilizer.

FOR PARTY OFF FOR AMSTERDAM

Permanent Peace Board Members to Be Selected Today.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 12.—The Ford
peace expedition has selected Thursday for the election of the five American members of the permanent Peace Board.
The delegates from other neutral states will elect a like number. William Jennings Bryan, Miss Jane Addams and Henry Ford are regarded as certain of election. Other names mentioned are William Howard Taft, David Starr Jordan
and Rabbi Wise.
The members of the expedition will proceed to Amsterdam today.

184,044 SKINS SOLD IN 2 HOURS AT FUR SALE HERE

300 Buyers Present at Opening Session—Many From Foreign Countries.

$1,000,000 WORTH OF PELTS

Four Special Train Bring Bidders to the Funsten Exchange Auction.

About 300 buyers, who came from all parts of the United States and from England, France, Germany and other European countries, were in attendance at the $1,000,000 raw fur sale, which started today at the Funsten Fur Exchange, 115 South Second street. A number of the buyers, some of whom have been in town for two or three days,
came in special trains from New York.

The sale will last until Saturday and it is expected that the bidding will be very spirited throughout. The sale is the largest ever held in the United States. The furs have been on display for several days.

The furs were gathered from the United States and 15 foreign countries. Nearly every part of the globe is represented.

At the auction sale, which takes place
in a large hall, no furs are exhibited.
Each buyer is supplied with a catalog containing the number and grade of skins in each lot; the auctioneer, he announces the number and the skins are bid in my number. The buyers before the sale inspect the particular skins
in which they are interested. The smaller skins, which are sold in large lots,
and are often cases, are inspected in a general way, but the larger and more valuable ones are inspected one by one.

A lot of skins often contain several different grades, but these are all designed and the buyer readily strikes
an average.

Up to noon 184,044 skins had been sold at prices which the fur men said were good. The higher-class furs, such as blue fox, silver fox, etc., will be sold tomorrow.

This morning 58,000 mole skins were sold at prices ranging from 6 cents to 13 cents. Other sales were: Nine thousand marmoset, or groundhog skins, 85 cents to $1.35; 34,000 nutria, or skins from water rats, 18 cents to 65 cents; 6000 squirrel skins, average of 25 cents each; 3000 fish, or skunk, 65 cents to $1.35; 1200 konuck, or fur from minks, 8 cents to 38 cents.

Later sales included 4000 Australian opossums, 76 cents to $1.20; 4000 white fox paws, 8 cents to 11 cents; 200 lepard and leopard cats, to $6.25; 2300
Chinese cats, 11 cents to 15 cents; 2000 house cats, 18 cents to 46 cents, and
... civet cats, 22 cents to 27 ce.

One of the most spirited contests of the morning was over 600 Persian lamb skins, the price of which ranged from $1.10 to $5.50 each. There was also a lively demand for the skin of the common housecat and prices for blue and black fur went up to 45 cents each.

DULUTH COW EARNS $1000 ANNUALLY FROM MILK ALONE

Produced 20,250 Pounds Last Year; Animal's Calves Each Sell for Another $1000.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 12.—Duluth has a cow with a gross earning capacity of $1000 annually for milk alone with an additional $1000 for her calf. She is Jean Duluth Beau, owned by Dr. Jean Duluth Beau, here, and today set several new official world records for a year's production of milk and butter fat. The year's test is officially recognized by the American Red Poll Cattle Club with headquarters at Gotham, Wis.

During the year, Beauty produced 20,
250 pounds of milk, containing 881 pounds of butter fat. This record makes her champion test Poll cow for a year or any fraction, sets all shorthorn and brown Swiss records, and official Jersey milk records, and has been beaten for milk by only one Guernsey.

COURT TO DECIDE IF HOUSE IS PORTE-COCHERE OR GARAGE

Case Involving Building Restrictions
in Parkway Taken Under Advisement by Judge Shields.

Judge Shields, in the Circuit Court, took under advisement today the injunction suit of Frederick Conrad, of 6208 Berlin avenue, of the Conrad Gercery Co., who sued to restrain Dr. Frank D. Boogher of 6200 Berlin avenue from having a garage within five feet of the line of the two lots, and, as a result,
the building restrictions of the Parkway subdivision prohibit.
It devolves upon Judge Shields to say whether a small building erected by Dr.
Boogher is a porte-cochere, which the building law permits, or a plain garage.
Dr. Boogher admitted in court today that he housed his automobile in it,
but said that it was not a garage, but a porte-cochere, after the best European style.

TAX ASSESSOR BEGINS INQUIRY INTO 87 ESTATES

Will Compare Returns Made by Administrators With Probate Court Records.

HAS POST-DISPATCH LIST

Unofficial Comparison Indicates
City Has Lost $225,000 a Year in These Cases.

Tax Assessor Schramm, taking advantage of concrete evidence of 87 specific cases of tax dodging disclosed by the Post-Dispatch since last June, has begun a comparison of the inventories of the estates on file in the Probate Court and the personal tax returns made by the administrators of those estates.

This comparison, the Assessor today said, a Post-Dispatch reporter, will be submitted to the Board of Equalization, when it meets in March, so that the board may alter any sworn returns
which do not tally with the taxable personal property listed in inventories of estates.

87 Specific Cases.
In the 87 specific cases of tax dodging disclosed by the Post-Dispatch, in its issues of June 22, July 21 and Jan.
8, it was shown that out of a total of $13,913,728 of taxable personal property par value, only $2,210,055 was returned for taxation. Personal property of par value of $11,703,683, owned by 87 persons, is thus shown by the records to have escaped taxation, resulting in a loss of more than $225,000 in annual revenue to the city.

Under a State law it is compulsory for the Probate Court clerk to notify the Tax Assessor of every estate recorded,
and to give the Assessor the names of administrators appointed under the terms of the will, or by the Probate Judge.

The administrator of each estate is required to make a sworn return of the personal property of an estate. If the administrator fails to make a return, an arbitrary assessment can be made at the Assessor's office, and the amount of the tax doubles as a penalty.

"At this time I cannot tell whether administrators of estates have reported as much personal property for taxation as the inventories published in the Post-Dispatch show," Assessor Schramm said.

"The tax books will be open to the public on March 6, and these returns
then can be publicly compared. If administrators claim to have disbursed an estate, the Board of Equalization may summon them and question them on this point."

The Board of Equalization will be in session for one month to consider appeals from tax assessments. By a vote of a majority of its five members, the board has authority to alter any sworn tax return, either by reducing or increasing it.

Administrators of estates cannot amend the returns they have made on the estates, except by application to the Board of Equalization next March. The time for filing tax returns expired Dec. 31, and those estates on which no return has been made can be doubled in assessment
by the Assessor, who, by an inspection of Probate Court records, can obtain concrete evidence of the amount of personal property owned by each estate.

ENGLAND DECLARES GERMANY GETS FOOD THROUGH DENMARK

Correspondent Asserts Scandinavians
and Holland Are Allowing Supplies to Get Through.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—The Mail prints a five-column article, crowding with statistics, devoted to showing that all kinds of foodstuffs from England are passing through Denmark to Germany.
The writer of the article, who was sent by the Mail through the Scandinavian countries and Holland, to make inquiry into the subject, says that a general condition of affairs prevails throughout Scandinavia and Holland.

BERLIN, via London, Jan. 12.—Count Westarp, on behalf of a committee, has reported to the Reichstag that the committee had examined statistical material on the food problem and reached the conviction that the existing supplies
were ample to support the population,
however long the war continues.

The report said especially that there was no lack of the necessities, like bread, potatoes and meat. Nevertheless,
the committee was convinced that economy in consumption was necessary.

RAIN SWELLING RIVER DES PERES, FAMILIES MOVE

Warning Given When Water
Gets Over Banks in Forest Park and Elsewhere.

This morning's rapid rise in the River
Des Peres, following a rainfall of 3 1/2 inches within 26 hours, caused widespread fear of a disastrous flood in the Des Peres valley, which would be the second such calamity within five months.
Several lives were lost, and great property damage caused, in the flood of Aug.
2, last, along the Des Peres in the city and country.

The Des Peres was out of its banks in Forest Park this morning, and southeast of the park as far as Manchester road.
Warnings were issued to householders
in Benton, and near the end of the Cherokee line, and a number of them
moved out of their homes temporarily, taking what they could remove.

End of Rain Promised.
The forecast of a fall in temperature to 6 degrees below zero, issued this morning by the Weather Bureau, promised a respite from the rain, but has already reached most unusual proportions for January. A tight freeze would probably prevent a flood disaster, unless a heavy snow and an ensuing thaw
should cause a new overflow.

The Weather Bureau predicted that the rain would turn first into sleet, and then into snow.

As strong northeast winds were predicted, the forecast seemed to indicate something like a blizzard.

Snow and Sleet.
Associated Press dispatches state that blizzard conditions prevailed in Northern Missouri and Kansas, and in Southern Nebraska and Iowa. Snow, rain and sleet interfered with train service in Northern Missouri and Illinois, and in Chicago, snow and sleet hampered the elevated and surface lines. Telegraph and telephone wires are down at many points in the Western and central states.

The Northwest cold wave was said
by the Weather bureau to be the most severe in recent years, with temperature of 30 to 40 degrees below zero
in the Northwest. The Arkansas road was expected to spread northeast, and to be followed by cold and northwest winds. The temperature in St. Joseph was zero, in Omaha 8 below, and in Kansas City 4 above.

Skating seems to be assured, for the first time this year. Members of society, especially, have been waiting eagerly for a freeze which would enable them to get into the parks and club-houses to participate in the fun which has proved so popular this winter in the East.

WILKINS ON TRIAL FOR THE MURDER OF COL. WALKER

Hearing at Bowling Green Begins and Case Against Louisiana Man Is Outlined.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
BOWLING GREEN, Mo., Jan. 12.— Fred D. Wilkins of Louisiana and his young wife appeared to be the two most unconcerned persons in the courtroom
as opposing counsel made the opening statements this morning in the trial of Wilkins, who is charged with the shooting on March 20 last, of Col. Allen M.
Walker, a member of the staff of Gov.
Major and a former Mayor of Louisiana.
Walker died two days after the shooting.

According to the Prosecution the shooting occurred while Walker was visiting the Wilkins home at a time Wilkins was supposed to be out of the city.

Judge Edgar B. Woolfolk held court in the opera house, as the county courthouse was destroyed by fire in September. He had an oil stove at his back and the jury was seated in the second and third rows of the orchestra circle
so as to be protected from two stoves
on either side of the stage.

Prosecutor's Statement.
Prosecuting Attorney Tom B. Mc-Ginnis said the jury was deliberately murdered by Wilkins at Wilkins' home.
As he mentioned the scene of the shooting he turned toward Mrs. Wilkins, who seated entirely in black, was seated just where the drummer will be at the show this evening. She met his stern look with a smile.

The Prosecutor said it would be shown that on the afternoon of March 20 Wilkins and Walker went together to the Burlington Railroad station in Louisiana and that Wilkins bought a ticket to Clarence, Mo. Wilkins made several inquiries as to way stations where the train might stop.

"We'll show that the ticket to Clarence was never used," McGinnis said.
The Prosecutor said it would be shown
that about dusk of the same evening Wilkins visited two grocery stores near the depot and asked to be allowed to use a telephone. At the second store he called a number of three figures, beginning with 4. The number of Wilkins' home telephone has three figures beginning with 4. Wilkins asked: "Is

U. S. CALLS ON MEXICO TO PUNISH MEN WHO KILLED 17 AMERICANS

Lansing Telegraphs Carranza Demanding That Penalty Be Administered Promptly and Publicly.

PRESIDENT KEEPS IN TOUCH WITH WAR DEPARTMENT

Sherman Offers Resolution in Senate Proposing Intervention and Dyer in House Suggests Invasion of Country—Lansing Says
Americans Were Told to Get Out.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Secretary Lansing today telegraphed to Gen. Carranza, calling for prompt, public punishment of the bandits who executed 16 or 17 Americans near Chihuahua Monday. Through Eliseo Arredondo, the newly appointed Mexican Ambassador here it was arranged to bring the bodies from Chihuahua to Juarez today on a special train.

It was announced at the State Department that Secretary Lansing's protest went by telegraph to American Consul Silliman at Querretaro and demands protection for Americans in the district, which is said to be controlled by the de facto government of Mexico. It denounces the murders as "a dastardly outrage."

Mr. Lansing's dispatch says the murdered men were traveling under safe conducts issued by military commanders of the Carranza government and that they apparently were slain solely because they were Americans.

Secretary Lansing issued a statement in which he said the State Department "feels that it took every possible precaution to prevent Americans from exposing their lives in a region where guerrilla warfare is in progress," and that "it is to be deplored that its advice was not followed."

"Every step will be taken to see that the perpetrators of this dastardly crime are apprehended and punished," he said.

The Secretary said the United States would look to Gen. Carranza for satisfaction. The question of what steps the United States will take depends upon development of the facts.

President Wilson was in communication early today with Secretaries Garrison and Lansing and soon instructions were issued to send to the White House
all facts as rapidly as received. Advices that at least 16 Americans were killed were received by Major-General Scott, chief of staff of the army, and also by the State Department.

Secretary Lansing's statement follows:
"In October the department sent the strongest kind of instructions to the Consuls in the states of Chihuahua and Sonora, calling upon them to use every means in their power to persuade Americans to leave immediately for United States territory, and these Consuls were instructed to employ special riders to carry this message to Americans loating in isolated sections. A few came out, some, regardless of the disturbed conditions existing in Mexico, did not heed the warning."

"It was only two or three weeks ago that Villa detained 30 Americans in the very district in which the unfortunate Americans now reported killed met their death. Great alarm was felt for the safety of these 30 Americans. Recently the Villistas are said to have stated that they would kill Americans in Chihuahua territory in order to force American intervention."

"Within the past week or 10 days,

enter the territory of Mexico for the purpose indicated."

There was in the Senate no discussion on the resolution.

Senator Gallinger read to the Senate a telegram from Judge L. W. Holmes of Keene, N. H., writing him to do all he could to locate his son, Thomas B. Holmes, survivor of the killing.

"My son, Thomas B. Holmes," read the telegram, "is a survivor of recent Mexican outrages. Please do everything possible to locate him."

Senator Gallinger, the Republican leader, later declared the time for watchful waiting had passed and that the United States now must take some steps to protect the lives of Americans in Mexico. He read a communication from the State Department saying Thomas B. Holmes, the only one of the 17 Americans who escaped death, was safe in Chihuahua.

Senator Stone declared he was in sympathy with the general idea expressed by Senator Gallinger.

"Everyone will agree," said Senator Stone, "that some kind of punishment will be meted out to the assassins who committed this crime. The Senator from New Hampshire says he has seen the time has come when some permanent step should be taken to protect the lives of Americans in Mexico. Would the Senator object to informing the Senate and the country just what he knows about the Government's policy?"

"We can say easily that these outrages in Mexico ought to stop and that we can denounce them. We can insist that punishment be meted out, but the things that concern me as a Senator and many others in and out of Congress is just what we ought to do. There is where we come to difficulties and on that very important subject I would be very glad to have the opinion of one wiser and more experienced than myself."

"My record during this controversy will show," returned Senator Gallinger, "that I have carefully refrained from criticizing the Government or from making special pleas to protect life and property in Mexico. I have realized the difficulty confronting the administration and have no disposition to embarrass it simply because it is not of my own party. But here is a very serious matter confronting us."

"We are told that 17 American citizens are stripped naked and stood up and shot. A little while ago the country was shocked almost into convulsions by the fact that one American had lost his life by a torpedo striking a ship, and there was serious talk of demanding reparation. That death has been multiplied 17 times. Seventeen more lives have been added to the hundreds of American lives lost in Mexico."

"Would settle it once for all."

"The Senator asks what I would do. I am not a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, as is the Senator, and I am not a lawyer versed in international law, as is the Senator. But if I were President today I would demand protection for American citizens of Mr. Carranza and if he were unable to give it I would ask Congress what further duty was I not going to argue, but I think we ought to settle now once for all whether the lives of American citizens are safe across the Rio Grande."

Senator Borah took the floor, disclaiming, as did Senator Gallinger, that he spoke for his party.

"There is no reason at this time why the American people should not let the sentiment on this question be known," he declared. "Five years ago seven American citizens were murdered just this side of the border, near Douglas, and 11 others were wounded. The American people expected to see this country, in harmony with its traditions, enter upon an aggressive policy for the protection of American citizens. They braced themselves against this attitude. But, Mr. President, the man who is stepping, procrastinating, apologetic, un-American policy, that is not ended yet."

"Today we are told 17 American citizens have been shot to death. Fortunately it was intended to smother this incident. It is only part of the story for much of what has happened south of the border has been smothered."

"Borah would intervene."

"If the bill was just taken off the State Department and the American people could see the reports of the Brazilian Minister on the killing of American citizens, and the insult to the American flag, it would not take them long to decide what they wanted to do. For the I would demand protection for Americans of Carranza, and if he did not give assurance of protection in a way that would leave no doubt as to its being carried out, I would intervene."

"Party politics has no place in consideration of a question of this character," replied Senator Stone. "The men who committed this crime should be hunted down and punished as they deserve, with death. It must be remembered that they were irresponsible bandits, and that there might be a crime of the kind in any state. It is only within two months that anything approaching a government has been established in Mexico. I am as concerned as any man in the protection of American lives and property in Mexico."

Senator Thomas, Democrat of Colorado, charged that the Standard Oil Company, on the one hand, and the Pearson Oil Syndicate, on the other, in rival efforts to obtain a monopoly of the oil industry in Mexico, were responsible for the revolutions in that country, and had covered it "with a sea of blood."

an, of St. Louis, presented a resolution asking the President to inform Congress if he did not think the time had arrived to abandon the "watchful waiting" policy, and invade Mexico, and to submit to the House the full details regarding the dealings of this Government with Carranza.

Other members planned to bring the subject before the House during the day, and invade Mexico, and to submit to the House the full details regarding the dealings of this Government with Carranza.

Americans Advised to Depart.

At the State Department officials decided to the fact that Americans had been warned since the United States declared to recognize Gen. Carranza to leave the state of Sonora and Chihuahua, which were then regarded as Villa strongholds. They said that in spite of the official warning more than 60 Americans remain in the district, including 200 Mormons at Casas Grandes.

Official advice received by the State Department early today from Chihuahua said the bodies of 17 Americans arrested at that city last night. Customs Collector Cobb at El Paso today reported that his investigation seemed to establish that 16 were killed.

Arredondo received confirmation from Carranza sources of the execution of the Americans and asked for further details.

Chairman Stone of the Foreign Relations Committee said in interviews he thought Senators should wait until official reports had been received.

"It appears that the slaughter of American citizens was the deed of bandits," said Senator Stone. "Such a law might occur in any country. What can be done I do not know. I think members of Congress should get all the facts available regarding this crime before discussing it."

MEN TAKEN OFF TRAIN AND SHOT

War Department to Insist on Administration Program for Military Forces.

EL PASO, Jan. 12.—Hundreds of persons through the telegraph offices and other sources of information here throughout the night, awaiting details of the reported execution of 19 men, 17 of whom were said to have been Americans, by a Villa band, Monday, near San Ysabel, 50 miles from Chihuahua City.

It was reported that the bodies of the slain men would arrive here today. Until that time complete details of the happening may not be available as the censorship imposed by the Carranza authorities shortly after the first news of the execution became known, shut off all but the bare announcement of what had happened.

Nineteen Unaccounted For.

Of nineteen reported to have been taken from a train and shot, only one, Thomas M. Holmes, is said to have escaped. Following is the revised list of those believed to have been killed:

C. R. Watson, El Paso; W. J. Wallace, El Paso; M. B. Romero, El Paso; T. M. Evans, Chihuahua City; C. A. Pringle, San Francisco; M. Anderson, Chihuahua City; R. P. MacCallister, El Paso; A. Couch, Chihuahua City; W. C. Coy, Denver; Alexander C. Hall, Douglas, Ariz.; Charles Wadleigh, Bisbee, Ariz.; E. L. Robinson, El Paso; G. W. Newman, El Paso; H. C. Hesse, Miami, Ariz.; J. Adams, El Paso; R. H. Simmons, El Paso; W. D. Pearce, Los Angeles; J. W. Woom, El Paso.

Of these Couch was a Canadian and Romero a Mexican.

According to information reaching here, a special train bearing the 29 foreigners and several Mexicans left Chihuahua City early Monday. It had hardly started on its journey to the little mining camp of Oshihurichie, in the western part of the state of Chihuahua, when a band of Villa followers, said to have numbered 25, boarded the train and lined up the foreigners on the railroad tracks and a firing squad shot it dead.

Holmes was said to have escaped by remaining behind as his companions were marched out of the cars. Just as the firing squad raised their rifles he fled up the railroad track in the direction of Chihuahua City, which he reached Monday night.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Word of the safe arrival of R. Harry Sims at El Paso, Tex., after having been held captive by Mexicans, was received here today by his brother, Edwin Sims, former United States District Attorney.

GEN. MONRO TELLS HOW ALLIES LEFT TIP OF GALLI POLI

British Commander in Official Report Describes Difficulties of Embarkation.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—An additional report from Lieutenant-General Sir Charles C. Monro concerning the evacuation of the southern tip of the Gallipoli Peninsula, and the fighting which preceded it, was made public last night. It says:

"The Turks attempted a heavy attack on our lines Jan. 7, between 1.30 and 3 p. m. Our trenches were continuously shelled and from 3 to 4 p. m. the bombardment became intense. The Turks also opened a heavy musketry fire."

"At 4 o'clock they sprang two mines near the Western Bird Cage and the Fusilier Bluff. A quarter of an hour later they fixed bayonets all along our front. Their officers were soon apparently endeavoring to make their men assault. They were only successful in doing so opposite the Fusilier Bluff."

"The Staffordshires completely repulsed an attack and a large proportion of the Turks who attacked were killed or wounded. Our casualties were five officers and 129 men killed and wounded."

"Aeroplane reports show that the naval fire on the left bank was most accurate, and it is probable that the enemy suffered considerably."

"The night of the 7th was fine. The evacuation and operations were quietly and successfully completed. The 8th was fine, with the sea calm until after 4 p. m., when the weather suddenly grew worse. At 11 p. m. the wind had increased to 35 miles per hour."

"From midnight onward it was only just possible to use the piers and lighter and impossible to carry out the program of embarking troops in destroyers alongside the steamer ships at West Beach, owing to the connecting piers being washed away. The embarkation of Gully Beach became impossible. One lighter went ashore there, and the remaining troops had to march to the west beach for embarkation."

"In spite of these difficulties, the program at West Beach was completed by 2.30 a. m. and the troops from Gully Beach and all the beach party had embarked by 4 o'clock."

"A hostile submarine was reported off Cape Helles about 9 p. m. The Turkish artillery was practically silent the whole night until the stores were fired simultaneously by a time fuse after the evacuation was completed. The Turks then fired their first red lights all along the line and opened a heavy shelling on our beaches and second trenches. The red lights continued one and a half hours and the shelling until after daybreak."

"The French embarkation was carried out by their own navy, which also greatly assisted us to embarking some of our animals."

Valley Park Church Steeple Hit by Lightning.

Lightning struck the steeple of the Sacred Heart Church in Valley Park, last night, wrecking the belfry and the clock. The large stone spire surmounting the steeple fell to the ground, but was not broken. The clock was demolished.

One Man Killed and Others Injured in Chicago Storm.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—One man is dead and half a score of minor accidents were reported as the result of a snow and sleet storm which struck Chicago last night and continued early today in the form of rain.

August Schultz suffered fatal injuries when he slipped and fell while carrying a 300-pound cake of ice. Other accidents also were due chiefly to the slippery sidewalks.

Service on one of the city's elevated lines was abandoned for two hours and on the other roads and surface lines was intermittent. Telegraph and telephone companies reported that their service had been hampered by the storm.

Second street was covered to a depth of six feet, and in the business section the basements of stores rapidly filled. West Weston, with 3000 population, suffered severely. Occupants of entire blocks being compelled to move.

GERMAN MUNITION DEPOT IN LILLE BLOWN UP; 70 DIE

BERLIN, via London, Jan. 12.—An ammunition depot in the southern section of Lille, Northern France, which is held by German troops, has been blown up. An official announcement says that 20 persons were killed and 40 injured. Considerable damage to property was done.

The official announcement, which was contained in today's army headquarters statement, is as follows:

"In the southern valley in section of Lille, an ammunition depot, belonging to the pioneer detachment, lodged in one of the casemates of a fortification, blew up. The nearby streets naturally suffered to a very considerable extent. Rescue measures taken resulted up to last night in the finding of 70 killed and 40 injured inhabitants. The inhabitants believe the accident was due to an English attack."

RELIGIOUS NOT TO ENTER INTO 'MENACE' TRIAL

Prosecutor Says Charge Is Sending Obscene Matter Through the Mails.

JOPLIN, Mo., Jan. 12.—John M. Mathews, Postmaster of Aurora, Mo., was a witness again today in the Federal Court here of the Menace Publishing Co. of Aurora, and four men alleged to have been connected with that company. The defendants are charged with sending obscene printed matter through the mails.

Mathews yesterday gave details of the mailing of various issues of the Menace, a weekly newspaper, in which the Government charges, were printed and circulated articles of an indecent character.

Questioned as to the four defendants in the case, Mathews testified Wilbur Phelps was business manager of the Menace Publishing Co., Bruce M. Phelps, superintendent of the publishing plant, Marvin Brown, managing editor, and Theodore Walker was known as editor of the Menace.

In making his opening statement Francis M. Wilson, United States Attorney, admonished the jurors that it was not to any question of religious belief in arriving at a verdict, but was to consider only the evidence that might be submitted as to the sending through the mails of the alleged obscene articles in so far as it might be shown that the laws relating to the mails have been broken.

"We are not charging that the Menace is an obscene or improper publication," he said. "We only charge that certain articles or parts of articles appearing in the newspaper and certain passages in a book the Government charges, were sent through the mails, thereby violating the law."

In opening the case for the defense, J. I. Sheppard declared to the jury that it was unfair to judge of the alleged publications as presented in the indictment and told them that reading of the entire articles from which the passages were taken would show the true character of the Government as groundless.

EXPLAINING 'THE SITUATION' GREEK NATIONAL PASTIME; ALL AGREE IT'S INVOLVED

Richard Harding Davis Finds One Thing That's Certain—Constantine Can't Fight the Allies Without Starving His Country.

The following article by Richard Harding Davis was written six weeks ago while he was in Greece for the Post-Dispatch and other newspapers to investigate the Grecian attitude toward Europe's great war. At that time, the allies had developed their greatest pressure to force King Constantine to abandon neutrality and plunge his country into war against the Central Powers. He resisted this pressure as everyone knows and his country remains at peace. Since writing and mailing this article, Mr. Davis has returned to France.

she cannot join the Germans. Greece is nonpartisan. What she eats comes in the shape of wheat from outside her borders, from the grain fields of Russia, Egypt, Bulgaria, France, America. Last week, when Dony's Coghlin, the French Minister to Athens, had his interview with the King, the latter became angry and said: "We can get along without France's money," and Coghlin said: "That is true but you cannot get along without France's wheat."

Greece Can Be Starved.

The allies are not going to bombard Greek ports, or shell the Acropolis. They will not even blockade the ports. But their fleets, French, Italian, English, will stop all ships taking foodstuffs to Greece. They have just released seven grain ships from America that were held up at Malta, and ships carrying food to Greece have been stopped at points as far away as Gibraltar. The steamer on which we came here from Naples was held up at Messina for 24 hours, until her cargo was overhauled. As we had nothing in the hold more health-sustaining than hides and barbed wire, we were allowed to proceed.

Whatever course Greece follows, her dependence upon others for food explains her situation. It is involved. It is not because no one will explain it.

In Athens no one does anything else. Since arriving yesterday I have had the situation explained to me by members of the Cabinet, guides to the Acropolis, Generals in the army, Teofani, the cigarette king, three Ministers Plenipotentiary, the man from St. Louis who is over here to sell aeroplanes, the man from Cook's, and "extra people," like soldiers in cafes, brigands in petticoats and peasants in peaked shoes with tassels. They asked me not to print their names, which was just as well, as I cannot spell them. They are written in the language that made Dr. Jowett famous.

They each explained the situation differently, but all agree it is involved. To understand it, you must go back to Helen of Troy, take a running jump from the Greek war for independence and Lord Byron to Mr. Gladstone and the Bulgarian atrocities, note the influence of the German Emperor at Corfu, appreciate the intricacies of Russian diplomacy in Belgrade, the rise of Enver Pasha and the Young Turks, which Constantine said to Venizelos about giving up Kavalla, and the cablegram Prince Danilo, of Merry Widow fame, sent to his cousin in Italy. By following these events the situation is as easy to grasp as an apple that has swallowed the hook and can't digest.

some Divergent Opinions.

For instance, Mr. Fonoropolos, the well-known contractor who sells shoes to the army, informs me the Greeks as one man want war. They are even prepared to fight for it. On the other hand, Axon Skidakas, the popular bartender at the Hotel Grande Bretagne, who has just been called to the colors, assures me no patriot would again plunge his country into conflict. To Axon the thought is so distasteful that he says: "It makes me a headache."

The diplomats here also disagree; especially as to which of them is responsible for the failure of Greece to join the allies. The one who is to blame for that never is the one who is talking to you. The one who is talking is always the one who, had they followed his advice, would have saved the "situation." They did not, and now it is involved, not yet said added. One military attaché of the allies volunteered to set the situation before me in a few words. After explaining for two hours, he asked me to promise not to repeat what he had said. I promised. Another diplomat who was projected into the allies in the Balkans, William Jennings Bryan, said if he told all he knew about the situation, "the world would burst."

Those are his exact words. It would have been an event of undoubted news value, and as a news gatherer I should have covered his secret from him, but it seemed as though the world is in trouble enough as it is. And if it must burst, I want it to burst when I am nearer home. So I switched him off to the St. Louis convention, where he was probably most useful than he will ever be in the Balkans.

While everyone is guessing, your correspondent ventures to make a guess. It is that long before this letter reaches America, Greece will be demolished, and will remain neutral, or still have joined the allies. Greece is still neutral, and the cables have reported partial demobilization. Without starving to death.

GIRL SECRETARY OF DR. MOHR TELLS OF HIS MURDER

Testifies Chauffeur Stopped Auto, Turned Off Lights and Then She Heard Shots.

ON SAME SEAT WITH HIM

Admits Physician Had Visited Her at Her Home Almost Every Day for Five Years.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 12.—Miss Emily G. Burger, secretary to Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, was called to the stand by the prosecution today at the trial of Mrs. Mohr and the two negroes, Cecil V. Brown and Henry H. Spellman, who are charged with the murder of the physician when on an auto journey with his secretary.

The State alleges Mrs. Mohr's jealousy of Miss Burger was a contributing motive for the murder of the doctor by the negroes, at the instigation of his wife. Miss Burger's testimony was the first time she had told her version of the tragedy.

Miss Burger in her confidential capacity is supposed to know more of Dr. Mohr's affairs and of the medical practice that brought him wealth and notoriety than anyone else. Intimations by the defense that his record as a physician would be gone into has accounted largely for the interest in the case.

Tells of Ride With Doctor.

Miss Burger described the automobile ride with the doctor which ended in the fatal wounding of her companion and serious wounds to herself.

"I was in the rear seat of the automobile with the doctor," she said. "He (the chauffeur, who has turned State's evidence) stopped the car, turned off the headlights, put on the sidelights and then got out. He said something about motor trouble. Then I heard an explosion and realized that I had been shot."

At the same time, she said, the doctor leaned toward her and she heard Heals say: "Oh, my God."

Miss Burger, on cross-examination, admitted Dr. Mohr had visited her at her home almost every day during the five years preceding his death.

Abbott Phillips, assistant Attorney General, in outlining the case of the prosecution, declared that Mrs. Mohr's extreme jealousy of Miss Burger was the motive for seeking her husband's life.

Phillips in recounting the circumstances of the death of Dr. Mohr, said that the prosecution was prepared to show that Mrs. Mohr had been jealous of Miss Burger and that she was jealous of Miss Burger.

Brands Her Desperate Woman.

"There were several powerful motives for Mrs. Mohr to want her husband killed," said Phillips. "She was a desperate woman, and we will show that she was extremely jealous of Miss Burger."

Phillips said Dr. Mohr was attacked on Aug. 31, 1935, when in an automobile on his way from this city to his Newport residence, accompanied by Miss Burger; that the negro chauffeur, George W. Heals, stopped the car while passing through a stretch of woods near Barton and that the doctor and Miss Burger were shot from ambush.

The chauffeur picked Miss Burger up after the shooting, Phillips said, and carried her to the side of the road. She recovered from her wounds, but Dr. Mohr died the next morning at the hospital.

"Heals will be a witness for the State," Phillips continued. "He stopped the car on the darkest spot in the road. We will show that Brown and Heals had been there previously and had arranged things by putting a branch of a tree at the side of the road, so that Heals would know where to stop."

"Dr. Mohr and his wife separated in March, 1934, and thereafter we will show Mrs. Mohr interviewed the negroes from time to time and also talked with the doctor's office girl, Miss Florence Ormby, in her efforts to find out who the doctor went around with, especially to see if he was with Miss Burger."

The prosecutor asserted that evidence would be presented to show that the doctor was to have been killed the night before the date of the murder, but that Heals found that instead of having Miss Burger in the machine with the doctor that night he had a Miss Wilcox and Miss Ormby and, therefore, he put on all speed when the doctor came to the place where the other negroes were lying in ambush.

Upbraided for Delay.

"Mrs. Mohr, we will show," Phillips continued, "sent for Heals and upbraided him for not stopping the car on that night; told him her divorce petition was coming up and that the murder had to be committed without delay."

The testimony of Dr. Griffin, who performed an autopsy on the body of Dr. Mohr, was designed to throw light on the question of how near the assassin stood, and what positions they were in relative to the car. He approximated the distance at which the revolver was held from the doctor's head, as one or two feet, judging from the burned edges of the wounds.

Augustus D. Mohr and Mrs. Ella Hogan of McEwansville, Pa., brother and sister-in-law of Dr. Mohr, have arrived here to testify for the defense.

Milk Millionaire Who Weds Second Time, and His Bride

MRS. GAIL BORDEN.

THE marriage last month of Gail Borden, multi-millionaire son of a milk company bearing his name, has become known to his friends. His bride was Mrs. Margaret B. Coutant, widow of the former manager of the McCleary department store in Pittsburgh, whom she married when she was a fur buyer for the establishment. The marriage is Borden's second. His first wife, Mrs. Helen Valk Borden, divorced him in Los Angeles in 1914. Their daughter, Miss Ramona Borden, 21 years old, figured in two disappearances after the divorce suit was begun. Borden and his new bride are living in Chicago. He is about 46 years old and she probably is five years younger.

PLEADS GUILTY TO WATER RATE GRAFT AND IS FINED $25

Robert Mahon, Former Deputy Collector of License Fees, Is First of Gang to Be Tried.

Robert R. Mahon of 174 Missouri avenue, formerly a deputy collector in the water rates office, pleaded guilty in Judge Miller's court today on three charges of petit larceny and embezzlement.

This was the arraignment resulting from the investigation of graft in the Water Department. Four other clerks are under indictment.

Judge Miller fined Mahon $25 in each of the three cases, but modified the sentences at the suggestion of Prosecutor.

SAYS HOT WATER EACH DAY KEEPS THE DOCTOR AWAY

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out the poisons.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminatory organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results both in regard to health and appearance.

WOMAN SUES TO OUST HER SISTER AS GUARDIAN OF GIRL

Fight for Possession of Marie Angelica Meiggs Renewed in Clayton Court.

Another step in the fight of two sisters for custody of Marie Angelica Meiggs, a 15-year-old Spanish girl, was taken at Clayton yesterday when Miss Mary Carnahan of Glendale filed in the Probate Court a petition asking that her sister, Mrs. Sara A. Gaines, a social service worker, be removed as Miss Meiggs' guardian.

Mrs. Gaines last month had herself appointed guardian for Miss Meiggs, and this action disclosed that the two sisters were opposing each other for custody of the girl.

In her petition Miss Carnahan alleges Mrs. Gaines is of an imperious nature, easily provoked to uncontrollable anger, impatient and irritable, and that she has a family of five boys, ranging in years from 9 to 17. She states that Mrs. Gaines' work, as secretary of the St. Louis County Welfare Association, takes her away from home every day and often at night, and that Miss Meiggs' husband, J. Allison Gaines, is away during the day and frequently at night.

Miss Carnahan asserts that she has power of attorney over the girl, given to her by another sister, Miss Grace Carnahan, now teaching school at Lima, Peru, where Miss Meiggs formerly lived. Miss Meiggs came into the Carnahan family in 1912, when her father, a railroad construction engineer, "transferred" her to Miss Grace Carnahan, who sent the child to the United States in the care of a steamship captain, so that she could be educated in English in St. Louis.

Gaines, talking for his wife, denied Miss Carnahan's charges. He said Mrs. Gaines decided to take charge of Miss Meiggs when Mary Carnahan placed the girl with a Webster Groves family, where she was to do light housework for her board. He said Grace Carnahan, now in Peru, had given the child into the care of her sister, Mary, with the understanding that the child should be cared for as a member of the family.

Miss Meiggs now attends the Holy Redeemer School at Webster Groves, and lives at Glendale with Mrs. Gaines and the latter's mother, Mrs. Catherine Carnahan.

Wilkins on Trial for the Murder of Col. A. M. Walker

everything all right," and then said "all right then."

The prosecutor said that it would be proved that about 9:30 o'clock that night Wilkins and Walker were seen walking from Wilkins' house to Walker's office and that Walker appeared ill, that his shirt was ruffled and his vest open, while Wilkins seemed to be supporting him.

The prosecutor told of Wilkins and Walker being found together in Walker's office and of a physician being summoned, who found that Walker had a bullet wound in the left side of the abdomen.

"The evidence will show," McGinnis added, "that the bullet entered through Walker's shirt, and that he had been disrobed at the time he was shot. The bullet did not pass through his coat, vest or trousers."

Wilkins' Lawyer Speaks.

Ras Pearson, chief counsel for Wilkins, asked for the privilege of speaking at once for the defense, instead of waiting until the close of the prosecution. He opened by saying that he had hoped the prosecution would make a fair statement of facts. The Court sustained a series of objections raised by the prosecutor to Pearson's remarks.

Finally Pearson said that Wilkins was born and raised in Pike County, and had three small children.

"Walker was a man of strong character," added Pearson. "He had many friends, many enemies. He knew best of all how he was wounded, and he repeatedly said that Fred Wilkins was in all ways to blame for his death. While on the operating table Walker said, 'Gentlemen, I want you to understand that if the worst comes to the worst, that Fred Wilkins is not to blame.'"

Wilkins' counsel said that just before Walker's death he said in the presence of 20 witnesses: "It's a lonesome, lonesome old journey I have to go alone. Don't you cry, Fred (meaning Wilkins). You are not to blame; it was purely an accident."

Fred Tunulty, a member of the Louisiana police force, was the first witness called. The prosecutor said he has been unable to find Frank Washington, a negro, who at the preliminary hearing testified that he heard a shot in Wilkins' house the night of the shooting and later saw Walker leave the house supported by some man.

A Little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. —ADV.

Attorney for Exchange Contents Measure Would Be Hardship on Vacant Lot Owners.

Real estate dealers appeared before the Public Welfare Committee of the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon in opposition to the bill authorizing the Health Department to have the weeds cut on vacant lots at the expense of the owners.

Warren McGinnis, attorney for the Real Estate Exchange, was the principal speaker. He contended that the bill would work an unnecessary hardship on lot owners and suggested that if the cutting of weeds is necessary as a health measure and for the promotion of the public welfare, it should be paid for out of the general revenue, as the cleaning of the streets is paid for.

Lot owners, he contended, were not more responsible for the weeds that grew on their lots than for the dirt that accumulated on the street. Weeds grew as dirt accumulated and the lot owners were not to blame.

Dr. Jordan, a member of the Real Estate Exchange, spoke in the same strain.

Dr. G. A. Jordan, Assistant Health Commissioner, argued that the same duty rested upon lot owners to keep their lots free of weeds as rested upon the householder to keep his premises in order and not allow anything to accumulate which would create a nuisance. It was his opinion that the passage of the ordinance would obviate the need of its enforcement. Owners, he thought, would cut their own weeds rather than have the city do it and send them the bill. The result would be that the weed nuisance would be abated.

Dr. Jordan insisted that cutting weeds was not a hardship. Any lot owner, he said, could keep down the weeds by giving an hour's attention now and then to the lots owned by him.

The committee did not decide whether to recommend the bill. It is expected that the bill will be passed.

It also authorizes the city to have snow and ice removed from sidewalks at the expense of property owners.

20 hits were scored, causing an outbreak of fire. Two enemy aeroplanes were shot down. The German squadron returned without loss."

Teutonic Espionage Said to Have Extended to Greek Officials.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Numerous extracts from documents seized at Saloniki, when the Consuls of the Teutonic allies were arrested there recently, are printed here. Among the papers, according to the published statements, were copies of daily reports telegraphed to Vienna by the Austrian Consul-General, giving the numbers and description of entente troops that were landing at Saloniki, reports of spies on the movements of entente forces in the interior and records of payments of these spies and to local newspapers. The system of espionage, the accounts state, also was extended to Greece and among the published papers there are what purport to be copies of reports made by agents at Greek military centers and by port functionaries.

"A good friend of Germany and can be trusted," is a sentence printed as being taken from one of the reports made regarding a certain prefect, while a certain officer is classed as doubtful.

Herr Hollehnner, secretary of the German legation, is represented as reporting that he was endeavoring to establish communication by spies with Monastir.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to do the work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is innoxious, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effective lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well. —ADV.

Registration Tomorrow for Negro Segregation Election and the August Primaries

A SPECIAL registration will be held tomorrow, from 8 a. m. until 10 p. m., in each of the 474 precincts in the city.

While the special registration is preliminary to an initiative election Feb. 29 on negro segregation ordinances, there are about 50,000 voters who will be unable to participate in the general primary election Aug. 1, when complete State tickets are to be nominated, unless they register tomorrow.

There is no provision in the law for a registration prior to a State primary, and this special registration for the segregation election affords a registration opportunity for voters who became of age since the registration last February and April, or who have moved since those dates.

Tomorrow, for the first time in St. Louis' history, an American flag will be displayed at every polling place, in compliance with a recent ordinance. Absentees and Invalids, who cannot register tomorrow, may register at the city hall from Jan. 14 to Feb. 23.

CHICAGO BELBOY HELD HERE AS HEAD OF FORGER'S GANG

Admits That Confession of Confederate in Windy City Is About Correct.

Albert P. Limber, 29 years old, was arrested at the Benton Hotel as the leader of a gang of belboy forgers who are said to have obtained $1000 to $2000 in three or four months by forging the names of men registered at hotels where the youths were employed.

Two other alleged members of the gang, Virgil Shelton and James Wilson, are under arrest at Chicago. Shelton has made a confession. When it was read to Limber last night after his arrest, he said it was about correct. He declined to make a statement before being taken to Chicago.

Member of Good Family.

Limber is said to be a member of a good family at Meadville, Pa. He left several years ago and has been employed as belboy at hotels. He was employed at the Grand Pacific Hotel in Chicago, according to Shelton's confession, when he learned that James Hennessey, a guest at the hotel, had an account at the Hiernan Bank Association. He went to the bank in his belboy uniform and said Hennessey had sent him and obtained a statement of Hennessey's account, his bank book and some canceled checks. A check for $110 was forged and cashed, and divided among four. The fourth member of the gang has not been arrested.

It was learned by the belboys that Otto Koehn, another guest at the Grand Pacific, had an account at the First National Bank. Two checks, one for $400 and one for $100, were cashed without suspicion. When a third check, for $100, was presented, Koehn did not have that much on deposit. He was asked about it, and the forgeries were discovered.

Payment Refused.

When an attempt was made to cash a check for $80 at the People's Trust and Savings Co., bearing the purported signature of James K. Finn, suspicion was aroused by the fact that the name of the banking institution had been written in and payment was refused.

Supt. Harry Mosher of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, who caused Limber's arrest, says the gang has operated in Detroit, Indianapolis and Cleveland, as well as Chicago.

C. W. KNAPP'S WILL IS FILED

Leaves $1 to Daughter, Rest of Estate to Wife.

The will of Charles W. Knapp, former president of the St. Louis Republic, who died in New York last Thursday, was filed for probate today. It was made Feb. 9, 1934.

To his daughter, Genevieve, Knapp left $1. The remainder of his estate was bequeathed to his wife, Frances Shackelford Knapp. The daughter is now Mrs. Guthrie McConnell of Waterloo, Io.

Mrs. Knapp was named as executor, but she has waived the right in favor of the Mercantile Trust Co. No inventory of the estate has been filed.

LIKES JAIL FOOD SO WELL HE KEEPS SELF LOCKED UP

Prisoner Tells Branson (Mo.) Marshal Various Yarns So as to Remain in Cell.

After being brought to St. Louis and handcuffed, Edward Schlott, 35 years old, of Fitchburg, Miss., at police headquarters today laughed in the face of Marshal Jacob Noland of Branson, Mo., and admitted to detectives here that he had blackened his own reputation in various ways because he liked the food served to him by Noland in the Branson Jail.

When Noland brought Schlott to St. Louis he believed he was one of two men who held up and robbed Frederick H. Kuhlmann in Kuhlmann's saloon, at 3000 North Fourteenth street, Dec. 23 last. Before leaving Branson, Schlott had made an affidavit that he was one of the robbers. Today he said he knew nothing of the Kuhlmann robbery and made the affidavit because he wanted to come to St. Louis after he had worn out his welcome in the Branson Jail.

The St. Louis Taxpayers' Federation has offered a reward of $25 for the capture of the Kuhlmann robbers.

Schlott appeared in Branson two weeks ago and told Marshal Noland he was Edward Murray, an army deserter. Receiving a $50 reward, Noland put Schlott in jail and wrote to the War Department. Circulars containing pictures of two deserters named Ed Murray came from Washington. Neither picture was that of the prisoner.

Schlott then told Noland he had escaped from the Columbus (O.) penitentiary. Noland continued to feed Schlott while he tried to verify this. He found it was not true. Schlott then told Noland he had escaped from the Iowa penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth. More languishing in jail and more good food. The story wasn't true.

Noland by this time had spent more than $40 on his prisoner in the way of food, lodging, letters and telegrams. He threatened to turn Schlott loose. Then Schlott played his trump card. He told his story of complicity in the Kuhlmann robbery.

With another reward in sight Noland handcuffed his prisoner and brought him to St. Louis.

Kuhlmann went to police headquarters today and said the prisoner was not one of the men that robbed him. The St. Louis police suggested Noland to take Schlott back to Branson and charge him with making a false affidavit.

"Not much," said Noland. "I'm tired of feeding him." Schlott is held for further investigation. He has had several meals at public expense since he came to St. Louis.

Marshal Noland is wondering whether Schlott could be prosecuted for obtaining food under false pretenses.

A FINE TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

Easy to Make and Costs Little

Catarrh is such an insidious disease and has become so prevalent during the past few years that its treatment should be understood by all.
Science has fully proved that Catarrh is a constitutional disease and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers, salves and nose douches seldom if ever give lasting benefit and often drive the disease further down the air passages and into the lungs.
If you have Catarrh or Catarrhal deafness or head-noises, go to your druggist and get one ounce of Parmit (double strength). Take this home and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful 4 times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head-noises, clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and mucus stop dropping into the throat.
This treatment has a slight tonic action which makes it especially effective in cases where the blood has become thin and weak. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every person who wishes to be free from this destructive disease should give this treatment a trial.—ADY.

CITY TO INSIST ON CHANGES IN OFFER OF PARK ADDITION

Exemption From Special Taxes Barrier Against Acceptance of 40 Acres at Chain of Rocks.

The Glasgow estate's offer of 40 acres of land as a southern extension of Waterworks Park, at the Chain of Rocks, will be discussed by the Board of Public Service with the prospective donors. An attempt will be made to get the property for the city, by concessions which will be fair to the owners, and which, at the same time, will not violate the city's established policy.

The chief matter to be adjusted is the requirement of the present owners that they shall be exempted from special tax assessments on their property adjoining the tract which they propose to give the city.

This is taken to mean that the city would have to pay the greater part of the cost of sewerage, whenever sewers are placed in that district.

Explains Water Demands.

John B. Denvir Jr., attorney for the owners, pointed out today the meaning of the request as to water rates. The Glasgow estate does not ask that occupants of houses on its property be exempt from payment of water rates, but it asks that water be furnished to them, with the same pressure, as in other sections, and that the rates charged them be the same. This would include the furnishing of water to a number of houses in St. Louis County. Whether the city can collect water rates from individuals living outside the city limits, may be a matter for legal inquiry.

As presented to the Board of Public Service at yesterday's meeting, by Carr Lane Glasgow, the proposal was to donate 40 acres, with a frontage of some 400 feet on Riverview Drive, to the city for park use. West of this tract, the donors would dedicate an additional strip approximately 600 feet long, with a width of 60 feet south of the park, and 20 feet where it lay beside the park, the other 30 feet for the roadway to be taken from within the park. The city would be required to build this road, with bituminized macadam or other first-class surface, and to install a water line along the roadway, with permission to the donors of the parksite to connect, and to obtain water by paying the regular rate. This roadway should be completed, and the water service installed, by Jan. 1 next.

Connection With Roadway.

The donors, it is stipulated, shall have the right to connect with the new road, on the west, by roads leading into the county. The city is to agree not to place any buildings on the park site of sufficient height to obstruct the view from the public road, and to devote the park site to park purposes. The city is also asked to assume special taxes levied against the donors living between the proposed road and the western city limits, and to assume all expense of improvements. The donors also wish to reserve the right of way across the park site and road, for underground conduits and piping.

The arrangement, the proposed donors state, is one of mutual advantage, the city getting a park addition twice the size of the present park, and a driveway of exceptional beauty. The donors will benefit by the opening of the hilltop land to public access, and by the increase in value through the proximity of the park.

President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service estimates the cost of the road and water main as $30,000. The value of the tract offered is figured from $40,000 up, and J. H. Gundlach said he thought it worth $100,000. In case the park is extended, the adjoining property of the Glasgow estate would have increased value for residence or resort hotel purposes.

AUSTRIAN SURRENDERS HERE ON A SMUGGLING CHARGE

Albert B. Brull Says He Is Willing to Face Canadian Accusation as to Diamonds.
Albert B. Brull, an Austrian, of Toronto, Canada, surrendered to the United States Marshal in the Federal Building today and expressed his willingness to face a charge of smuggling diamonds into the United States from Canada. He was released on a $750 bond.

Federal officials had been looking for Brull, following his arrest and release by the police Monday night. Brull was arrested at the American Hotel on a telegram from the police of Toronto, who said he was wanted there for stealing diamonds. He convinced the police this charge was a ruse to get him back into Canada to make him serve in the British army.

When Federal authorities learned he had valuable diamonds a warrant charging him with smuggling was issued. Brull today said he wore the diamonds as part of his wearing apparel when he came across the frontier and that three which he carried in his pocket belonged to his wife, who is still in Toronto. He said he was not asked to describe the diamonds when his effects were examined by customs officials.

Curling Hair Like This Promotes Its Health

For those whose hair is straight and lank nothing better could be recommended than the silicone method. This insures a beautiful curliness which is perfectly natural in appearance, and the health of the hair is not affected as where the heated iron is used. A few ounces of liquid silicone—which can of course be had at any drug store—lasts a long time, so it is quite economical to use. It is pleasant to use, for being neither sticky nor greasy, and is easily applied with a clean toothbrush. The hair should be moistened the full length before.

Make Skin Smooth

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching, soothes the skin, and that cleanses and soothes the skin.

Ask any druggist for a 50c bottle of Zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that pimples, blackheads, eczema, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

A little Zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes all skin eruptions and makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

RED PIMPLES ON NECK AND FACE

Spread Rapidly on Shoulders and Body. Itching and Burning Intense. Completely HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT.

"My trouble began in small red pimples which soon grew larger, festered and came to a head, then dried and formed a crust somewhat of a yellowish color. My neck and face were entirely covered with eruptions which spread quickly on my shoulders and body. They were in the form of blotches and the itching and burning were so intense that I was obliged to scratch and irritate the affected parts."

"A friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They instantly cooled and relieved the trouble and one week's use completely healed me." (Signed) Miss Cecilia Wells, Valence, Ind., July 21, 1915.

$75,000 IN 700 UNCLAIMED BANK ACCOUNTS IN STATE

Largest Single Amount, $8802.
Held Here for G. H. Suver,
Who Died in 1887.

Seven hundred accounts in Missouri State banks and trust companies, aggregating about $75,000, which have been unclaimed for more than five years, were made public today by State Bank Commissioner J. T. Mitchell. No accounts in national banks are included, because the State Bank Commissioner has no jurisdiction over them.

The list is made public in accordance with the provisions of the new banking law, enacted by the last Legislature. If the deposit remains unclaimed, it continues to be a deposit in the banking institution, drawing interest in cost cases, and must continue to be published as unclaimed once every five years.

The published list includes deposits ranging in amount from $5 to $8802. The largest is in two accounts aggregating $8802 deposited in the German Savings Institution and the Postman's Bank by G. H. Suver in 1887. Suver is dead. Within the last year his heirs found a letter written by him a short time before his death telling of the deposits. The letter had been misplaced and forgotten. The heirs are attempting to prove their right to the money.

WOUNDED MEN FAIL TO IDENTIFY EACH OTHER AS FOES

Two Who Were in Fight in Same Locality Deny They Were Antagonists.

A man giving his name as Raymond Fairchild, 22 years old, a switchtender of 3519 North Ninth street, who had a severe stab wound in the left groin, applied at a drug store at Broadway and Salisbury street for aid about 1:30 p. m. yesterday. The police were notified and he was sent to the city hospital.

About the same time another man who said he was Joseph Sudbeck, 28 years old, of 2011 Newhouse avenue, applied at the North End dispensary for treatment for a laceration on the right ear. In his pocket the police found a knife with blood on the blade. Sudbeck said he was hurt in a fight at Broadway and Bremen avenue, but declared he did not know who his antagonist was.

Fairchild also said he was hurt in a fight by an unknown antagonist at Ninth street and Bremen avenue. The police took Sudbeck to the city hospital, but Fairchild said he could not identify him as the man who stabbed him. Sudbeck said he could not identify Fairchild as the man he fought with. He said he knew Fairchild.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY, HAZED, BREAKS BONES IN HIS LEGS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—Foot warming with baseball bats, ducking in ponds and "stiff jumping" are some of the forms of hazing indulged in by San Francisco high school pupils, according to admissions of students to the Board of Education yesterday. Putting the victim in a big can and then bombarding the can with half bricks was one way of arousing his faculties, the board was told.

The investigation followed a hazing in which a Lowell High School lad suffered a fracture of the bones of both legs when "induced" to jump off a 20-foot bank. "I have observed that the boys will call each other 'mister,'" said Supt. Roncovieri in the course of the hearing. "This is something which must not be tolerated. Principals and teachers must be instructed to call them 'Willie' and 'Johnnie.' We are growing away from old-fashioned ideas."

Asks Police to Look for His Wife.
Edward Rathel of 6083 Maple avenue has asked the police to look for his wife, Mrs. Adelaide Rathel, 27 years old, who left home Jan. 8. Rathel also reported that a man boarded left the same day.

$200,000 Fire in Panama.
PANAMA, Jan. 12.—The American Hotel and several other buildings, including retail stores and an ice factory, burned today. Fire threatened the district in the neighborhood of the Panama Railroad station. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

ENGLISH CRACK SHOT TELLS OF POTTING GERMANS

Sportsman Picks Off Enemy Sitting on Parapet—Comrades Help in Killing Teutons.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.
LONDON, Dec. 30.—The following letter, written by a British General, has been given to the Post-Dispatch correspondent by its recipient here, an American. The sharpshooter who is credited with doing such execution
among the Germans is said to be a sportsman of wide reputation in England and Ireland, and a noted shot.
"Floods are considerable and growing steadily worse," said the General, "till all the time we are doing our bit, and picking off the Germans, quite a lot,
in many ways, every day and night."
"One of our sentries had a good bag a few days ago. He watched a German clamber up a house in ruins, to get shot, no doubt, into our lines, and presently he got a shot. Down came his bird, spread eagle, 30 feet. Later a bit of German parapet fell in. They could only cross in the open, and had to. He got 13 pretty quick, and there were eight others besides doing equally good shooting."

"Recently about 200 Germans one fine morning came outside, and sat on their parapet, why no one knows. Our lads rattled them to their fathers, or most of them. There had been an awful
"strafe" in the German trench, not unlike a mutiny, with clash of bayonets."

"A few evenings ago some of our lads were singing. A German yelled in English, 'You would not bloody well sing
if you were over here.'"

"We handled no words with them on any account."

"Things are going as usual. We are mopping up quite a lot of those brutes, without making claims or columns in the paper. Their losses must be—very considerable, and we have very good reason to know it."

SOCIETY

THE winter exodus to sunny lands
has already begun. Some persons have gone, others are about to go and still many more are making plans
to be off within few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. West of 11
Westmoreland place departed today for Ormond, Fla., to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White Scudder will leave St. Louis Feb. 4 for Ormond, where they have been in the habit of going for a number of seasons. Their daughter, Mrs. Earl H. Reynolds of Chicago, will join them there later.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Bascom, who have gone to Ormond for the past two years, will again spend the last of the winter there and will depart Jan. 31.

Mr. and Mrs. David R. Calhoun of 830
Waterman avenue are on their way to Palm Beach for the season. They have taken their son, David R. Jr., to school in the East. After a short stay in New York they will go on to Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiggins of 22
Portland place and their daughter, Miss Ellen Scott, will go to Honolulu for a six weeks' visit and will sail on the Matsonia from San Francisco, Jan. 26.

On the same ship, bound also for Honolulu, will be Mr. and Mrs. Otto L.
Merriman and their daughter, Miss Isabelle Merriman, who will spend part of the winter there and will return to California to stay until spring.

Miss Stella Schneider and her brother,
Walter Schneider, will sail on the Matsonia for the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Whitelaw, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitelaw, and the latter's mother, Mrs. Louise A. Kien, are also going to Honolulu. George C.
Whitelaw, who is in Santa Barbara,
Cal., will join them as will Mr. and Mrs. George Kaim, formerly of St.
Louis, and their two daughters, Miss Laura and Katherine Kaim.

Charles A. Lempe and Frederick H.
Ewing are making plans for a trip to Honolulu and the Orient and will probably start in February.

The marriage of Miss Edna Bernice Dienst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.
J. Dienst and Eugene Rudolph Meth-uety took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 233 Cleveland avenue, the Rev.
Dr. John Roemer officiating. It was a quiet wedding with only the families of both present. After the breakfast the couple departed for a tour of two months to California, the Grand Canyon and Honolulu.

Miss Marguerite Wisner of Chicago is visiting Miss Helen Devlin of 808 Cal-anna avenue. Many social affairs will be given for her during her visit.

Miss Wilma B. Hetzler was hostess
at a meeting of the Delta Sigma Phi's Saturday afternoon. Miss Owen Hetzler of Columbia, Mo., was the guest of honor, and was surprised by a miscelaneous shower. Her engagement to J.
M. Price of Columbia was recently announced. Those present were Misses Cecile Lowenstein, Helen D. Devlin,
Vina M. Lewis, Louise Kroeger, Grace
H. Ryffel, Estelle Carroll, Edna M. Bur-
dick, Irma Kohlmeier, Gertrude D. Vogel, Owen Hetzler and Wilma B. Hetzler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Snow of the Hamilton Hotel will depart Monday for a three month's trip in the South, during which they will make a cruise in the West Indies.

Former Judge and Mrs. R. E. Green-felder have closed their Ferguson residence and have taken apartments at the Hamilton Hotel for the remainder of the winter.

Dermatol
Heals chapped hands and lips.

THREE HOLOUPS REPORTED

Two St. Louisans on streets.
Chester H. Hardy of 426 Cook avenue

BE CAREFUL IN USING SOAP ON YOUR HAIR

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive
soaps or anything else all to pieces.
You can get this at any drug store,
and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking,
bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—ADV.

Cough and Cold Syrup

Made at Home, Touches Spot.

A great big, full pint of laxative cough syrup of the finest quality known to the medical world can readily be made by any woman of good child. To a pint of granulated sugar add a half pint of boiling water; stir and cool. Obtain at drug store 2 1/2 ounces Eucalypti Menthol-Laxene, empty it into a pint bottle and fill up with the syrup.
A teaspoonful every hour or two will check or stop a cold in the head, and cure any cough that is curable. It will pay any family to keep it always in the home to avoid the diseases due to colds, such as pneumonia, bronchitis, sore throat, diphtheria and consumption. It is marvelously quick in action and permanent, too. Contains no opium or poisons.—ADVERTISEMENT.

WOMEN SUFFERERS NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble
and never suspect it.
Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or
the result of kidney or bladder disease.
If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.
You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness and may be dependent and irritable.
Don't delay starting treatment. Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, restores health to the kidney and is just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.
Get a fifty cent or one dollar bottle
immediately from any drug store.
However, if you wish first to test
this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N.
Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the St. Louis
Daily Post-Dispatch.—ADV.

IT BREAKS YOUR COLD IN A FEW HOURS—TRY IT

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the Surest, Quickest Relief Known—Tastes Nice, Harmless and is Splendid Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold, either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine. Don't accept something else "just as good." Insist on getting "Pape's Cold Compound" if you want to stop your cold quickly.—ADV.

LITTER TO BE CLEARED FROM CORRIDORS OF CUSTOM HOUSE

Calendars Also Ordered for Main Floor in Response to Editorial in Post-Dispatch.

A recent editorial in the Post-Dispatch complaining of the grimy, inconvenient and untidy condition of the old customs house at Third and Olive streets and the newer one at Ninth and Olive streets has been responded to in part.

One of the complaints was at the lack of calendars in the corridor of the Ninth street building which is used by the postoffice. Fountain Rothwell, Collector of Customs and custodian of the building yesterday wrote to the Secretary of the Interior asking him to supply six calendars, four to be used in the corridor and two in his office. The law providing the use of calendars with advertising matter on them.

Workmen have been laying new floors on the first, second and fourth floors of the Ninth street building, keeping the corridors littered with lumber and waste material. Rothwell has asked Herbert Huntington, Engineer of Construction, to have them cleared.

Family Searching for Missing Man.

The family of Joseph A. Schick, 31 years old, of 428 North Newstead avenue, have instituted a search for him following his disappearance last Friday from his home. He started for work at the E. Gardner Carriage Co., 905 North Twentieth street. He had been under the care of a physician for a nervous disorder. He is married and has five children.

GARRISON REJECTS HAY'S SUBSTITUTE FOR ARMY PLAN

War Department to Insist on Administration Plan for Increasing Military Forces.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Secretary Garrison has indicated that the opposition of Representative Hay, chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, to the administration's plan for strengthening the army, will not alter the War Department's insistence on the plan, in substance at least. Hearings on the army bill were resumed before Representative Hay's committee today.

At the White House yesterday Hay told the President he favored passage of a militia pay bill, with a contractual provision that state soldiers who should draw pay from the Federal Government would be required to serve in the regular army in time of war.

He also proposed that present organizations of the army be brought up to war strength, which, he said, would furnish the number of men thought necessary by Secretary Garrison without any large addition of officers or increase of overhead charges.

Secretary Before Committee.

The administration plan, which Secretary Garrison told the Military Committee had the entire approval of President Wilson, would provide for additional regular army organizations to bring the total force up to 141,000, as compared with approximately 100,000 at present. This would mean, he said, in his testimony, approximately 800 additional officers, who would be needed to train the continental force.

The Secretary, as well as Major-General Scott, Chief of Staff, and other army authorities have declared that no proposal to employ militia as a first line troops would be worked out which should not give the Federal Government absolute jurisdiction over them in peace as well as in war times. The announcement of Representative Hay was not a surprise to War Department officials, although he recently drew, for the committee's consideration, a tentative bill which included the continental army scheme. This was before Congress assembled and after conferences with the President and Secretary Garrison. The bill, however, did not carry out the administration's plan for the regular army and added a militia pay feature not favored by the War Department.

A wholly different scheme, contemplating more than doubling the regular army, has been proposed by Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the Senate Military Committee, in a tentative bill prepared for consideration by his committee, which has not yet taken up its work.

Full Program Unlikely to Pass.

It is apparent even to the supporters of the President that the military project outlined by him will not be provided by Congress in the substantial form urged. Aside from the opposition to the general plan of preparedness which he has deemed urgent to recommend, a good many members of his party in the lower house are opposed to specific features of it. Forty-two members, headed by Claude Kitchin, of North Carolina, the titular leader of the House, have declared their opposition to it.

As the Democratic majority is only 21, the loss of 42 votes is likely to prove a serious matter. Added to the 36 Republican votes—if the Republicans shall finally conclude to oppose the military program because of some political expediency not contemplated in the general scheme of the Republicans to vote for increases in both the army and navy—there will be enough votes against the army bill to defeat it.

The President's friends in the lower house who are fully cognizant of those conditions already have begun to discuss the advisability of modifying the plan so as to overcome controlling objections to it.

An outline of a new plan under consideration contemplates that Secretary Garrison shall be given what he has asked for in the way of a standing army.

Pigeonhole for Citizen Army.

The plan for the creation of a continental army will be pigeonholed. In place of it, the units of State militia forces will be developed so as to provide a citizen soldiery force approximating something like 400,000, in accordance with the project presented by the War College a year ago.

In order to encourage the development of the militia forces of the respective States, the advocates of the new plan propose to dip into the "pork barrel" by creating a schedule of individual subsidies for persons enlisting for a period of three years. The schedule calls for annual payment of $300 to a captain, $400 to a first lieutenant, $200 to a second lieutenant, $200 to a corporal, and $50 to a private. This pay plan, it is believed, would encourage militia companies in the towns and villages throughout the country.

A military training school, fashioned after West Point and to be located on the Pacific Coast or some point in the West, also is contemplated, the alternative being the enlargement of the West Point Academy to double its present capacity in order to provide officers for the new military establishment.

Bryan Leading Opposition.

It appears to be equally the purpose of the opponents of the bill to delay action on them as long as possible, in an effort to recruit sufficient forces to defeat them. In this undertaking William J. Bryan is easily the recognized leader, with Majority Leader Kitchin as his most active lieutenant.

Bryan has provided ample evidence of his determination to carry his fight against the program of the President to a finish. Already letters and circulars are deluging the halls of Congress every day, in response to his suggestion, repeated weekly in the Commons, that the voters of the country "write your Congressman." The sympathizers of Bryan in the Lower House are availing themselves of their franking privileges to send broadcast the utterances of Bryan and Kitchin in opposition to the preparedness program.

The attack made by Congressman Sherwood, "father of pensions," on the President's program the other day, also is being widely circulated. More than 20,000 copies of it were delivered for distribution today.

Bryan has been in active communication with a great many of the members are actually before the House. Bryan will spend all of his time in Washington, directing the fight against them. Recognized lieutenants, who frequently report to him, are Congressman William Wurth Bailey of Pennsylvania, Dan V. Stevens of Nebraska, and Clyde Tavenner of Illinois.

The opposition so far developed against the President's program in the House is confined almost entirely to the interior and the smaller states. For instance, there is represented in the opposition, Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Texas and Wyoming.

In the Illinois delegation of 25, however, but two members have declared their opposition, but one in Pennsylvania, one in New York (Meyer London, the Socialist), while in the New England, Atlantic Coast, Gulf and Pacific Coast States, the sentiment seems to favor the President's program.

The Republicans are not taking any hand in the preliminary fight.

Wholesale Liquor Men's Officers.

The Missouri Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association yesterday elected these officers: F. A. Hugo, St. Louis, president; Emil Nathan, St. Louis, first vice president; S. Hirsch, Kansas City, second vice president; George O. Wipern, St. Louis, secretary and treasurer.

of the Lower House who have evidenced their opposition to the President's plan. The effect of his leadership is daily apparent to both the friends of the administration and its enemies. It is understood that when the defense measures are actually before the House Bryan will spend all of his time in Washington, directing the fight against them. Recognized lieutenants, who frequently report to him, are Congressman William Wurth Bailey of Pennsylvania, Dan V. Stevens of Nebraska, and Clyde Tavenner of Illinois.

Good Health in Old Age Brings Much Happiness

Simple Remedy Promotes Health by Overcoming Tendency to Constipation.

Advancing years impair the action of the vital organs. Old age should be the period of greatest happiness, but good health is necessary. Constipation should not be tolerated—it is often the direct cause of ill health. Headache, belching, biliousness, bloating, drowsiness after eating and other symptoms of constipation can be readily relieved by the use of a simple laxative compound sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. J. H. Bristol, 1412 Geddes Ave., Ann Arbor, Mich., who is 83 years old, says "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy I ever used for constipation and I always have a bottle of it in the house to use when I feel the need of it; it never disappoints."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild laxative preparation, positive in its effect, acting easily and naturally without gripping or other pain or discomfort. For over a quarter of a century it has been the standard household remedy in thousands of homes. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. A trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 534 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

The LINDELL January Clearing Sale

Is Proving the Wisdom of CASH Buying and CASH Selling

Keen buyers who judge merchandise values well are finding that LINDELL clearing prices as well as LINDELL regular prices are lower—or the quality is better.

The narrow margin of profit upon which goods are originally marked by reason of our extremely light "overhead expenses," makes it easy at clearing time for LINDELL VALUES to be better than those of stores operating under heavier expense.

This is the LINDELL'S FIRST CLEARANCE of Winter merchandise, and therefore it positively embraces only things that are NEW to the season.

Truly this is a time to TEST LINDELL VALUES, a good time to test LINDELL SERVICE.

It is good time to know this COMING STORE better—a time to profit.

Clearing Bath Towels

DECREASE OF 32 PER CENT IN CALLS FROM THE NEEDY

Provident Association Hears Reports for December and Year and Elects Officers.

At the annual meeting of the St. Louis Provident Association at the City Club yesterday afternoon reports for the fiscal year ended Oct. 31 last were read and officers for the next year were elected. Christian Bernet, who has been acting president since the death of George D. Barnard, was elected president, and Francis G. Eaton was elected vice president. The other active officers were re-elected.

A special report, supplemental to General Manager Hubbard's report, gave a review of the present conditions, in which it was stated that the Provident Association is now feeling the effects of the improved industrial conditions. This relief began to be felt about the first of December.

The November expenditures for aid to the needy exceeded the expenditures of November, 1914, by 9 per cent, but when the December total was footed up it showed a decrease of 32 per cent. It is expected, the report said, that January will show a still greater decrease.

ATTORNEY SUING FOR $15,000 FOR AN ASSAULT LOSER CASE

Sterling P. Bond Declares Three Defendants Beat Him Because of Speech to Jury.

In Circuit Judge Anderson's court a verdict was returned yesterday for the defendants in the $15,000 suit of Sterling P. Bond, a St. Louis attorney, against Benjamin H. Marbury and Luther H. and George K. Williams of Farmington, Mo., for assault by the defendants on bond at Farmington, March 26, 1914.

The encounter grew out of a case in which the Farmington Bank, of which Luther Williams is cashier, prosecuted a man who was defended by Bond and S. S. Bass. Bond, in his address to the jury, it was alleged, intimidated that Luther Williams had testified falsely, and also reflected upon Marbury.

Marbury, accompanied by the Williams brothers, accosted Bond in front of the St. Francois Hotel and demanded that he apologize for his language. He did not apologize and was attacked, he alleged. Bond said that the three men assaulted him with their fists, feet and weapons, injuring his jaw and displacing a gold bridge in his mouth. The version of the defendants was that Bond made a hostile move and that Marbury struck him on the jaw with his fist, knocking him down, and that no other blows were struck.

Charles M. Hay, attorney for the defendants, argued that there are times when a witness or other person is justified in hitting a lawyer for vicious speeches in court. He said Bond was lucky in escaping with an injured jaw.

PRESIDENT ISSUES CALL FOR JEWISH RELIEF DAY, JAN. 27

Proclamation Recites 5,000,000 of Faith Are in Warring Countries, Most of Them Destitute.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In response to the Senate resolution requesting him to do so, President Wilson today issued a proclamation designating Jan. 27 as a day for the relief of suffering Jews in Europe.

The president's proclamation recites the resolution, which says that 5,000,000 Jews are in the warring countries, that the great majority of them are destitute of food, shelter and clothing, and that millions of them have been driven from their homes, and continues:

"And, Whereas I feel confident that the people of the United States will be moved to aid the war-stricken people of a race which has given to the United States so many worthy citizens."

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, in compliance with the suggestion of the Senate thereof, do appoint and proclaim Jan. 27, 1916, as a day upon which the people of the United States may make such contributions as they feel disposed for the aid of the stricken Jewish people."

"Contributions may be addressed to the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C., which will care for their proper distribution."

DON'T STAY GRAY! SAGE TEA WILL MARKEN YOUR HAIR JUST BEAUTIFULLY

Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair—Comb or Brush it Through the Hair.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, evenly. It is also splendid to remove dandruff, cure itching scalp and stop falling hair.

Preparing this mixture, though, is a mussy and troublesome task. For about 50 cents a bottle you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy."

Some druggists put this mixture up themselves, but make it too sticky, insist you want "Wyeth's," then there will be no disappointment. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning all gray hair disappears and after another application or two becomes beautifully darkened and more glossy and luxuriant than ever. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and you'll look years younger. Inquiry shows all pharmacists in town here sell lots of it.—ADV.

DU PONT FAMILY IN A FEUD OVER ENORMOUS PROFITS

Alfred I. du Pont Deposed as Vice President and Finance Board Member.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 12.—The bitterest family feud that has broken out in the Du Pont family since Pierre Samuel du Pont de Nemours, French socialist and statesman, settled here more than 100 years ago and began making gunpowder, came out publicly when it was announced from the offices of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. that Alfred I. du Pont had been deposed as vice president and member of the Finance Committee.

Collectively the Du Ponts have made more money since the war began than any other group of financiers or business men in the world. They have made money faster than it ever was accumulated by the Standard Oil party, or even by the Rothschilds after the battle of Waterloo.

Not Equally Divided. But the money has not been equally divided, so some members of the family claim, and they have gone to court to find out if they cannot share in the enormous appreciation in value of the company's shares, which has added at least $50,000,000 to the fortunes of Pierre S. du Pont, president of the company, and his intimates in the family circle.

The trouble started when T. Coleman du Pont, then president of the Du Pont Nemours Powder Co., thought it advisable to sell his stock in the powder company and use his money to complete the great Equitable Building in New York and for other purposes. He had more than 64,000 shares of the common stock and enough of the preferred so that, taking his common at $200, he obtained $12,800,000. That stock now has a market value of $80,000,000 and handsome dividends have been paid on it meanwhile.

Philip F. du Pont of Merion, Pa., was the first to start the row over the spoils accruing from the war contracts.

Alfred I. du Pont has just intervened as a party plaintiff. Cousin Philip says he is the owner of 37,700 shares of the common stock. He is a first cousin of Pierre S. du Pont, the company's president, and of the wife of T. Coleman du Pont, who controls the Equitable Life Assurance Society and the Equitable office building corporation.

Moreover, there are associated with these rebellious members of the family Mrs. R. L. Pent (nee Du Pont) of Philadelphia; E. Paul du Pont and Archibald M. L. du Pont. They have joined with Alfred I. du Pont and Philip E. du Pont in a complaint to the Court, though they are sisters and brothers of A. Felix du Pont, one of the defendants.

The feud already has disrupted Wilmington society and is bound to stir up Delaware politics. It also has reached the bench, for Judge E. G. Bradford found himself incapacitated to try the case, as he married a Du Pont. Judge Victor Wooley of the Circuit Court of Appeals then was designated, but pleaded that he was overwhelmed with other work. So a Judge to try the case has not yet been found.

SIXTH TO TREAD ONE MORE ST. LOUIS HIGH SCHOOL STAGE

Shylock will tread the stage of the Yeatman High School, demanding the due of his pound of flesh, at the graduating exercises in the first week of February. But it probably will be his farewell appearance in St. Louis schools.

The board of Education last night considered the protests which have been made against the presentation of Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice," in which Shylock is the chief character. The protests were on racial grounds, and the objectors held that the figure of Shylock misrepresented the Jewish character and that its portrayal tended to arouse prejudice.

The board adopted a resolution stating its belief that "no part of the work of the public schools should be inconsistent of the feelings of any earnest and thoughtful portion of our citizens," but adding that "in the present case it would be unfair to the Yeatman pupils, who have worked for weeks on the play, to prohibit its presentation now. Ben P. Stromberg is chairman of the Committee on Instruction, which drew up the resolution.

FEET FROZEN; TO BE AMPUTATED

Frank Wiers, 56 years old, of 2 Plum street, a laborer, will have both feet amputated at the city hospital today as the result of having gone without medical attention for nine days after his feet had been frozen.

Wiers said that three weeks ago he was shipped by an employment agency to McAllister, Ok., to work on a railroad, but was discharged because of his age. His feet were frozen in making his way back to St. Louis.

How You May Throw Away Your Glasses

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses who do not really need them. If you are one of these unfortunate, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optima; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water and drop in one Optima tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily, and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eye-strain, catarrh, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this prescription. Get this prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Thousands who are blind or nearly so, or who wear glasses, might never have required them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Save your eyes before it is too late! Do not become one of these victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches, and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakness and better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong eyes through the prescription here given.—ADV.

If Your Little Boy Has a Cold Follow N. Broadway Lady's Advice

Mrs. J. R. Rapp, 3233 N. Broadway, Finds Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Better Than Internal Medicines.

Last winter the local druggists distributed a number of complimentary jars of Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve, in order to acquaint their customers with this new theory of treating croup and cold troubles externally. Intelligent mothers have found this "outside" treatment far superior to the old forms of internal medicines which are injurious to the delicate stomachs of the little chaps.

You just rub this salve over the throat and chest, and cover with a warm flannel cloth. The body warmth releases soothing anesthetic vapors that are inhaled with each breath.

and, in addition, Vick's is absorbed through the skin, taking out the tightness and soreness.

Mrs. J. R. Rapp, who tried a jar of Vick's from Judge & Dolph, writes us as follows: "I used Vick's on my little boy, who had a very bad cold, and it seemed to help him a great deal. I rubbed his chest and put a little up his nose, for his nose was blocked a little, and that made him breathe easier, and in about three day's time the cold was gone."

You will find Vick's excellent for all forms of cold troubles, from head colds, catarrh and asthma, down to sore throat, bronchitis, and incipient pneumonia. It comes in three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00. At all druggists.

TOO WEAK TO FIGHT

The "Come-back" man was really never down and out. His weakened condition, because of overwork, lack of exercise, improper eating and living, demands stimulation to satisfy the cry for a health-giving appetite and the refreshing sleep essential to strength. GOLD MEDAL Heartier Oil Capsules, the National Remedy of Holland, will do the work. They are wonderful! Three of these capsules each day will put a man on his feet before he knows it. Whether his trouble comes from uric acid poisoning, the kidneys, gravel or stone in the bladder, stomach derangement or other ailments that befell the over-tired American, don't wait until you are entirely down and out, but take these capsules. Your strength will steadily return. Your money will gladly return. Take one capsule three times a day. The price, 50c per box. They are the pure, original, imported HOLLAND OIL Capsules.—ADVERTISEMENT.

Letters We Would Like to Write.

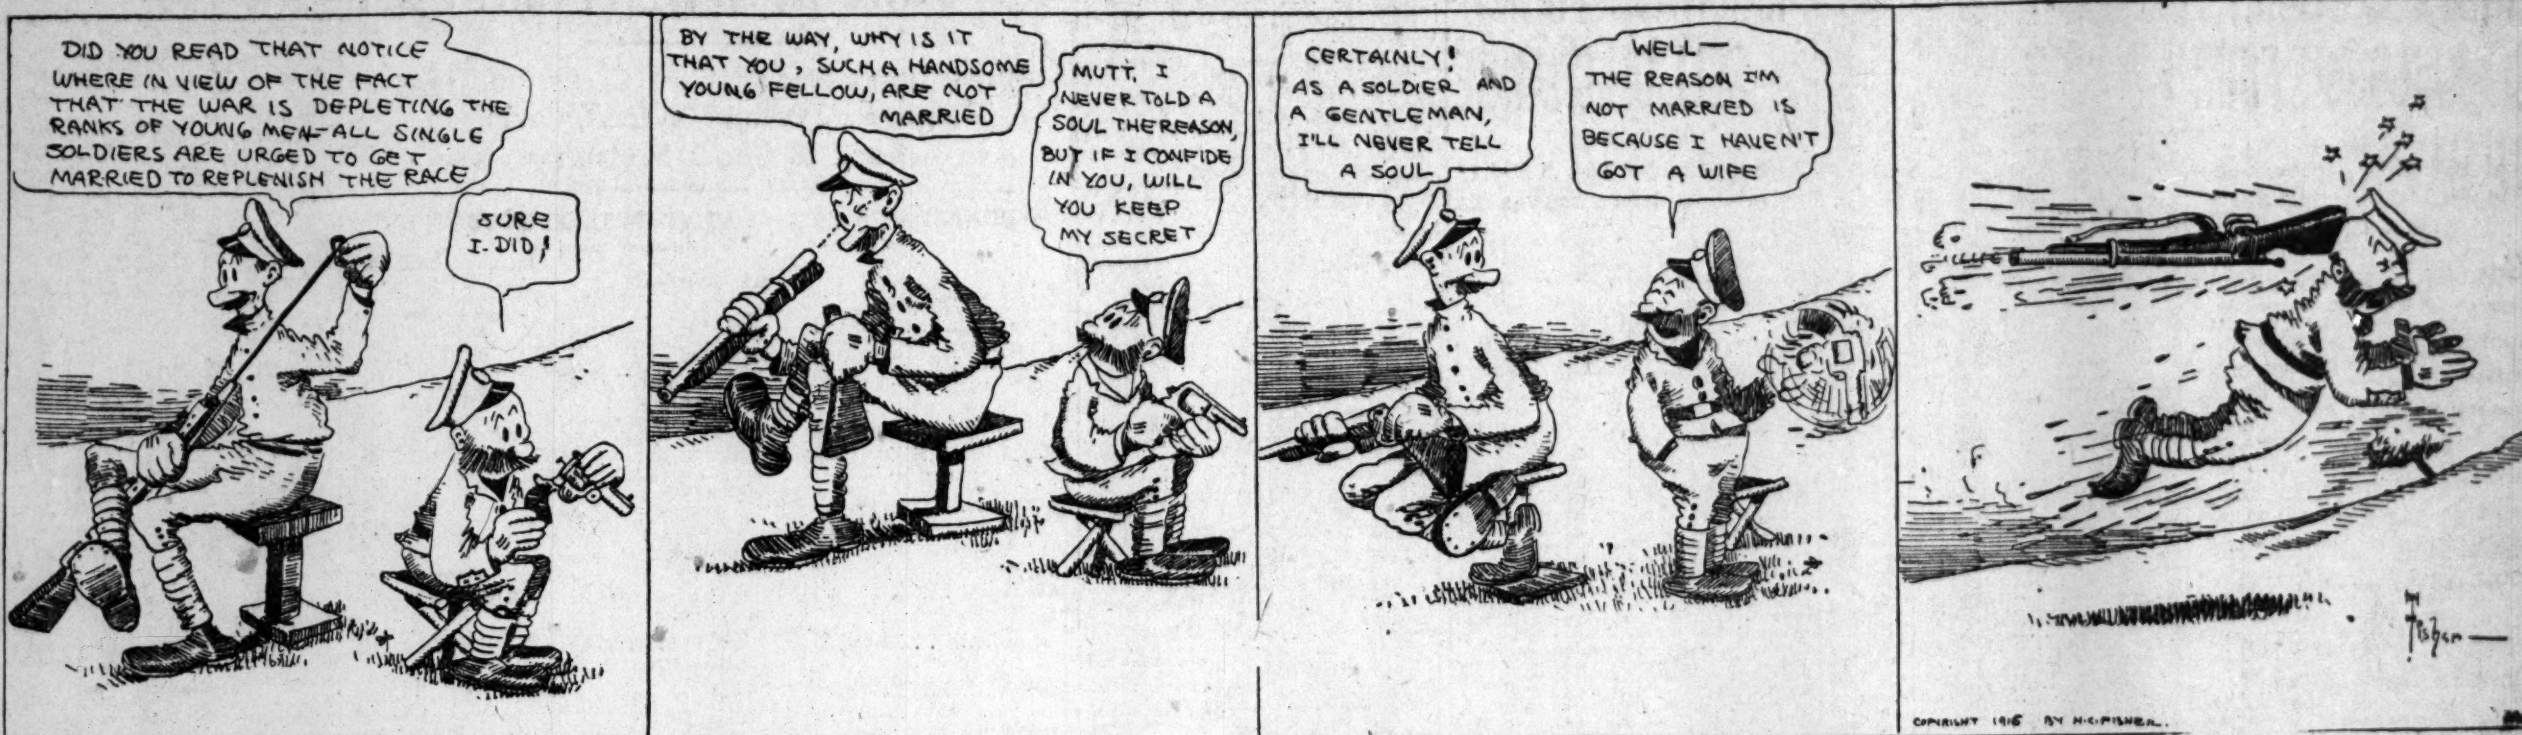

DEAR LANDLORD:
I received your note asking me to show Mr. and Mrs. Looker through our apartment and to do everything I could to convince them that they could not do worse than to engage an apartment in your building.
Obeying your instructions, I demonstrated the nonrolling window shades, the nonclosing bedroom doors, the non-raising windows and the "never-hot" water system. Nor did I fail to demonstrate the steamless radiators.
I showed them the spots on the ceiling where the rain comes in during the January storms and demonstrated the ventilation system devised by you through not putting weather strips on the windows.
I replied to their questions regarding janitor service by explaining how the janitor swept the hall with his glance at least once every month, and how he maintained the air of respectability for the apartments by posing as a statue in front of the entrance in a "solid undershirt" to watch one's automobile company arrive.
They asked me about repairs. I assured them that they need never fear your making repairs. I showed them our kitchen sink, which has been stopped up for two months. I showed them the bathtub which has been leaking ever since we took the apartment. I demonstrated to them the infallibility of the switchboard telephone service—how without fail one could depend upon waiting at least fifteen minutes before distracting the attention of the operator from the mysterious errands which took her from the switchboard only at such times as she was needed there.
Unfortunately, I could not demonstrate to Mr. and Mrs. Looker all the things I wanted to, for their time was limited. They, however, explained that they had seen enough. Very truly yours, Misplaced Words.

A MAN was brought before a Police Court charged with abusing his team and using loud and profane language on the street. One of the witnesses was a pious old negro, who was submitted to a short cross-examination.
"Did the defendant use improper language while he was beating his horse?" asked the lawyer.
"Well, he talk mighty loud, suh."
"Did he indulge in profanity?"
The witness seemed puzzled. The lawyer put the question in another way.
"What I mean, Uncle Ann, is did he use words that would be proper for your minister to use in a sermon?"
"Oh, yes, suh, yes, suh," the old man replied, with a grin that revealed the full width of his immense mouth, "but dey'd have to be 'ranged diff' runt."

THE difference between the 10 cents for the movie ticket and the $2 for a seat at the other kind of a show is always going to be just $1.00, no matter what kind of self-kidding arithmetic the managers of the talking theaters use in trying to prove the contrary.

Must Have Been Careful.

DURING the progress of the morning's bath of a few months' old infant a neighbor's little girl came into the room carrying a doll and stood watching the operation for some time. The little girl's doll was much the worse for hard usage, being minus an arm and leg. Finally she said to the mother of the child:
"How long have you had your baby?"
The child was informed, and, looking from her doll to the baby, she said:
"My, but you have kept it nice!"

Useless.

WE've got to cut down expenses this year," announced Mr. Riverside, "and I think we'll begin by giving up our box at the opera."
"Oh, Henry, you surely wouldn't think of doing that," protested his wife.
"Why not?" if my business keeps on as rotten as it is now I won't be able to buy you any new gowns, and there's no use paying rent for a show window when you haven't got any goods to show."

Already Promised.

SENATOR, I wish you would give me a job as your private secretary."
"Oh, my boy," responded the oily Senator, "don't get mixed up with the Government service. Nothing to it. Ruins a young man. Besides, I have promised that position to my son."

No Rebate.

A BEAUTIFUL young lady approached the ticket window at the railroad station and in a voice like the rippling of a brook, asked the agent:
"What is the fare to the fair?"
To which the agent replied: "Same as to the homely, madam."

Seeing Aslant.

HER eyes were not exactly straight, and someone commented upon it and asked Long if he had noticed it.
"Noticed it, man!" he replied. "Why, she is so cross-eyed that recently when I say next to her at a dinner she ate off my plate."

Brain Food.

Envious.
FIVE-YEAR-OLD Willie often played with a neighbor boy, John. One rainy day the two were just starting across the clean kitchen floor at Willie's home when the latter's mother, noting their muddy shoes, headed them off and sent them out to play on the porch, where the following conversation took place:
"My mother don't care how much I run over the kitchen floor," said John. There was a long interval of silence. Then Willie said: "I wish I had a nice, dirty mother like you've got."
Love at first sight usually paves the way for a lot of hindsight thinking.
